caught so they use the element of speed and taking advantage of people who are a little too trusting," said Cottonwood Heights Police Sgt. Mark Askerlund.

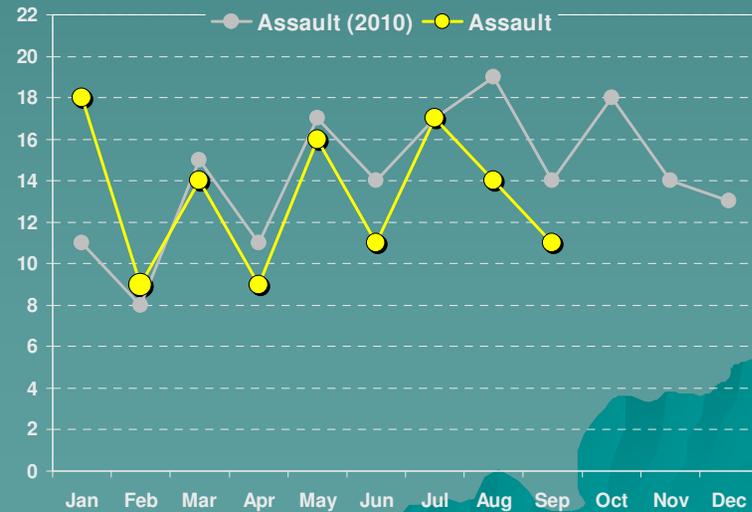

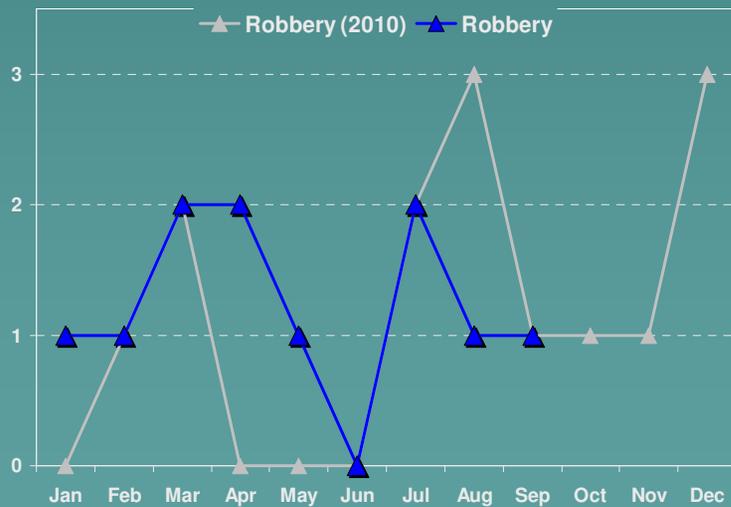

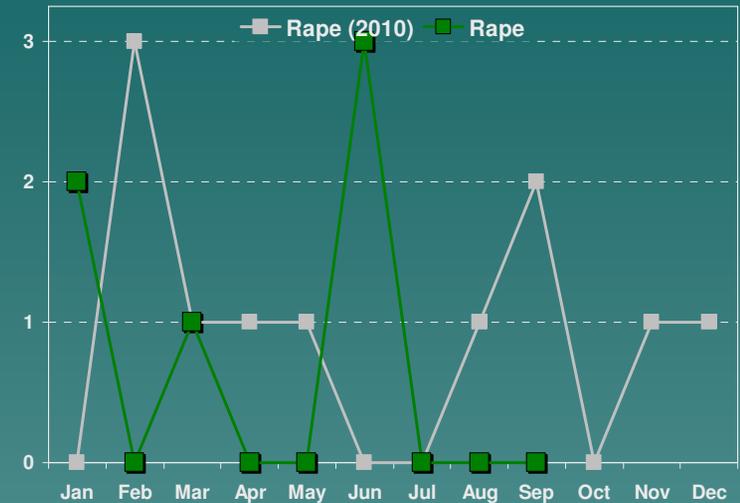

COTTONWOOD HEIGHTS, Utah— Police are warning Cottonwood Heights residents to lock their doors, keep their garages closed and look for suspicious activity after a rash of break-ins have been reported, many of them in broad daylight.

Cottonwood Heights Police say as many as 25 break-ins have been reported. They say the thieves will make quick grabs, often pulling items from open garages, or stepping into residents' front doors to snatch valuables.

"Most of them have been at it for a long time and they know exactly what they can and can't get away with and they don't want to get

Dr. Doty called and asked that I forward a heartfelt thanks to the officer who took the time to see he was all right in a bicycling incident. It occurred at about 06:15 on Friday, September 30th. Doty is the superintendant of the Canyons School District. He would like to personally thank the officer but I couldn't find a log or report.
