

Cottonwood Heights

Weekly Update for the Week of April 18-22, 2016

City Manager

1. Video production for Kaleb Broderick at Ridgecrest Elementary spanned Monday to Friday. Also worked with Canyons School District to coordinate media coverage and messaging.
2. Preparation for tree planting event for Earth Day also took place. Invited media to the event.
3. May newsletter is almost ready for printing, and should be sent to the printers by Monday.

Police

1. Narcan training was given to Cottonwood Heights' officers so that they can now carry and administer the lifesaving drug.

Administrative Services

1. Shakeout took place Saturday April 16th. Great city wide participation.
2. Red Cross Shelter full scale exercise held on Thur. April 21 at the Brighton Stake Center.

Community Development

1. Sierra Trading Post announced its grand opening, scheduled for Thursday, May 19. The new store will be located next to Trader Joe's.
2. The Cottonwood Heights Business Association is working with the Cottonwood Rec Center to host a Recreational Lifestyle Fair to highlight the many outdoor-oriented businesses in the city. The event will be Thursday, June 30.
3. The developers of the Giverny PUD have reached a settlement with the property owners. We now expect to devote more productive time working towards recordation of their final plat.

Public Works

1. Staff attended the League of Cities and Towns "Road School" where they participated in a variety of seminars on policies and procedures of road maintenance and snow removal. Staff met with vendors to learn about equipment options and performance.
2. Staff assisted with the No Idling sign installation at Antczak Park near Ridgecrest Elementary.
3. Ongoing maintenance and prep. work on Creek Road for the future chip seal project.

Photos

Kaleb Broderick and student council at Ridgcrest Elementary speaking about the environment

Brighton High Youth Council and City Council members planting trees on Earth Day at the new City Hall

Council Member Tee Tyler helping to plant trees with Youth City Council Members on Earth Day, April 22

Councilman Scott Bracken speaking at the Earth Day tree planting at the new City Hall

Councilman Mike Shelton speaking to the Ridgecrest Students on Earth Day

Vector Truck demonstration at ULCT Road School